As the philanthropic arm of Kansas Masons, the Kansas Masonic Foundation is dedicated to benefiting Kansas communities and individuals. In 2013, the Kansas Masonic Foundation Board of Trustees voted to award almost $200,000 annually to college students and residents. Since then, Kansas Masons have displayed their commitment to the success of local communities by contributing over $200,000 worth of scholarships annually to local students in their respective communities.

Each year, our Kansas Masons offer scholarships statewide to deserving high school and current college students in three categories, including General Scholarships ($500 or $1,000), Legacy Scholarships ($1,000), and Cynthia Ruth Russell Scholarships (Up to $5,000). Applications are accepted from December 1st through February 15th, and winners are notified by mid-April annually.

This year, continued support was given to recognize local students in the community through awarded funds to the following students by [Insert Lodge Name]
